

HEAL THE WOUND

(Nicole Nordeman)

Intro

D G

Verse 1

Bm G D A
I used to wish that i could re write history
Bm G D A
I used to dream that each mistake could be erased
D/F# G Bm A G
then I could just pretend I never knew the me back then

Verse 2

I used to pray that you would take this shame away Hide all the evidence of who I've been but it's a memory of the place you brought me from that keeps me on my knees,
G
.. and even though I'm free

Chorus

D A/C# G D/F# G
Heal the wound but leave the scar a reminder of how merciful you are D A/C# C G
I am broken, torn apart take the pieces of this heart and Gm
heal the wound but leave the scar

Verse 3

I have not lived a life that boasts of anything and I don't take pride in what I bring, but I'll build an alter with the rubble that you found me in and every stone will sing of what you can redeem

Chorus

Bridge

Em Bm
don't let me forget everything you've done for me Em G A
don't let me forget the beauty in the suffering

Chorus
